

Registering a Fellowship in Obstetric Anaesthesia on the OAA Website

Hospital Name	Rotunda Hospital
Hospital Address	Parnell Square, Dublin 1, Ireland
Name of Supervising Anaesthetist	Dr Anne Doherty
Email address for enquiries	andoherty@rotunda.ie
Phone Number for enquiries	+353 1 8171753
Duration of Fellowship	12 months
Grade that post is suitable for	Post training
General Info about the obstetric unit eg no of deliveries, complexity of work	c.8500 deliveries per year. Tertiary referral centre for both complex maternal disease and fetal disease including in-utero fetal surgery, with well-developed multi-disciplinary pathways for the provision of care for these complex cases. National Centre for Cardiac Disease in Pregnancy including both acquired and congenital maternal cardiac disease.
Clinical info eg responsibilities, hours of work, out of hours, education/research opportunities	Clinical and research based 12 month fellowship Minimum 1 – 2 days per week for research Honorary Clinical Lecturer appointment with the Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland Six month training in JFICMI Basic Critical Care Echocardiography The Rotunda also has an active audit and research programme with recent fellows presenting their research at international research competitions

General Info About Your Hospital

Founded in 1745, the Rotunda is the oldest stand-alone maternity hospital in the world and the busiest maternity hospital in Europe.
The department of anaesthesiology has 10 consultant anaesthetists and 13 trainee anaesthetic doctors caring for approximately 8,500 families per year.